
One-at-a-time sweep; every run is compared with a baseline solved at the same parameter value. Flood radius and depth do not apply to the closure scenario. Value of time, truck share and passenger-car equivalents enter only the linear economic-cost formula and cannot change these physical outputs, so they are omitted.