
Capacity is restored linearly over 90 days and equilibrium is re-solved every 5 days. Q = (share of demand served) × (baseline mean trip time ÷ disrupted mean trip time). R is the average of Q over the 90-day horizon. S2 top-k closes the k greedily chosen links; S4b cuts capacity on the busiest 10% of links.